

28th OCTOBER 2020

EXPLORE AUSTRALIA'S BACKYARD WITH AIRNORTH

To support the tourism industry and the communities across the Airnorth network who have been deeply impacted by the COVID pandemic, Airnorth has released over 10,000 sale airfares with prices starting from as low as $149* to some of their most popular destinations between Queensland, the Northern Territory and Western Australia to encourage travellers to get back in the air and explore Australia's backyard.

With international holiday destinations such as Bali and Europe being off-limits this year, Airnorth recognizes that there is pent up demand for those in Australia wanting to travel.

As part of the promotion, Airnorth have included a tactical spook-tacular sale that will be online for only 48hrs commencing at 12:01am, October 29 that will make sale fares available on flights within the school and holiday travel periods from December 14 to January 3.

"We proudly fly to some of Australia's most sought-after regional holiday destinations in the north, and we hope that by extending affordable airfares to Australian's for travel between December and January will not only allow travellers to reconnect with friends and family during the festive season, but also provide the perfect solution for those wishing to make travel plans in 2020," said Daniel Bowden Airnorth CEO.

Airnorth has worked closely with stakeholders across Australia's tourism industry to launch their current campaign, partnering with Darwin International Airport, Minor Hotels and Hilton Hotel Darwin, to package up exciting holiday giveaways as part of their overall strategy in a bid to entice travellers to engage with the promotion and book a holiday here in Australia for 2020.

"It's fantastic to see Airnorth launch a sale of this magnitude to help support the tourism industries and communities in the Northern Territory, Queensland and Western Australia. Despite its challenges, 2020 is the perfect year to explore Australia's own backyard. Australia's North; with its tropical wetlands, vast deserts and rich cultural experiences, is a pretty special backyard indeed!" said Tony Edmondstone NT Airports CEO.
